Gary,

With the passing of time and continuing silence, I find myself wondering more and more about Ned.

And with his (and your) silence about Gary Short, I wonder if he is still in business? He has never returned what he was supposed to, never let me know about the tentative Kansas appearance even after I phoned, and with an upcoming book, I may be getting some requests, as t is morning I got a feeler.

When you can, would you please check on this for me?

Too busy on legal stuff.

Best
